Another Year of Lads in the Books Looking forward to 2024!

The elders would like to congratulate all who participated at Lads this year. All were winners!

We want to ask all parents who have children to encourage them to be involved in Lads. This, in our opinion, is one of the best training programs in the brotherhood of young people.

If your child/children are not involved but would like to be and have questions about the program, please ask us, those who have been leaders of events and/or Jared and Allison.

Also, we encourage your children to get involved in our youth program!
