“Final Notes in the Key of A”

14, wow, 14 years I have had the privilege of being a Youth Minister. 12 and a half of those have been right here, with you. This chapter of my life has been far better than I could ever imagine and YOU are such a huge part of that. Thank you will never be enough. I will never be able to put the words on paper just how thankful I am to each one of you or how much I love each one of you.

I met with the elders on Tuesday of last week and informed them that a great opportunity with Blue Origin had been presented to me and I will be working in Huntsville. With this new and exciting move, I can no longer serve as the Youth Minister and give it the full devotion it deserves.

From the bottom of my heart, I am thankful. I never was and never will be perfect but just know with your support, love and encouragement over the years, I truly believe I am a better Christian, husband, father and friend because of this church.

Thank you.
I love you.
Keep growing.

-Wes

A Minute with Mac

Well I hate that I am not able to be with you all this morning in person, however I am watching online. As many of you know, I am in quarantine for the next couple of weeks. I went to the hospital this past Monday afternoon to visit someone there. I wore my mask the entire time visiting, and at the time the person of whom I was visiting was not known to have COVID. However, the next day around lunch I received a call that the person which I visited with the day prior had tested positive for COVID. At the time of writing this, I have had two negative test for COVID and I am showing no symptoms. However, erring on the side of caution and at the advise of medical doctors, I am under quarantine for the a total of 14 days, unless I develop symptoms.

I know brother Ronnie will do a good job this morning preaching and teaching the Bible class. I appreciate him and his wonderful family so much. Brother Ronnie's stance on the truth is commendable and I love him for, not only his truthfulness but also his constant encouragement.

If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and if you have any questions about what transpires this morning, please feel free to ask.

This Wednesday night we will continue our annual Summer Series! Our overall theme is "What to do when..." Wednesday night's guest speaker will be Greg Dial! Brother Greg's topic is "What to do when my marriage is failing." Please make plans to attend and bring a friend!

It is going to be a great day because you are here to worship our God!

Lord willing I'll see y'all in two weeks!
