Be Encouraged...

As we all go through this life, we come to some hills that seem to be more like mountains to climb. It appears to be an impossible task and we may even get to the point where we say, "it's just no use to even try..." and we give up. We sometimes allow worldly pressures to get us down and this will certainly hinder our spiritual progress.

We are all challenged with different things in this life. They may be physical, financial, marital or some other personal challenge. They may even be spiritual challenges we face. However, we all have or can have the same source to pull us through... Jesus Christ. The apostle Paul said, "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me..." (Phil. 4:13). Paul is saying that he could bear any trial, perform any duty, subdue any evil tendency of his nature, and meet all the temptations incident to any condition of adversity. Paul realized what he had on his side... He had Jesus! Do we realize the power of this source? ... Do we acknowledge what Christ can do for us? ... Do we allow God to have full control of our lives?

If it is that you are at a point in life where you feel helpless and things seem hopeless...you are encouraged to put your trust in God (Prov.3:5; Psalm 37:1-6). And do NOT forget that...

As the "Family of God" we need and are told to continually encourage one another (Heb.10:19-25; "Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.").*

May we all be encouraged to stay faithful to the Lord... to give our very best for Him... to live like Christ and live for Christ ... and to devote ourselves fully to the cause of Christ! May we desire to be CONNECTED, BEAR WITH and ENCOURAGE one another always!
