It's your fault

Mckinley Pate

Often times, many want to blame others for things that do not go their way in life. Sports fans like to blame the athletes, athletes blame the coaches and coaches blame the referees. Children blame their parents, parents blame law enforcement or the media, and, well, the media blames everyone. Our society has become one where no one takes responsibility for his/her actions. It is always someone else's fault when things don't go our way.

Sadly this is the same mind set many use when it comes to spiritual matters. The homosexual blames God for "making them the way they are." The teenagers caught up in fornication tend to blame society or their parents for their sin. The one who is mired in adultery blames the church for not being understanding to their emotional needs. Even the wavering member blames his/her lack of attendance (or other sins) on the preacher or the Eldership. The blame game has been around for a very long time. Remember Adam blamed Eve in the Garden and God for making Eve; Eve blamed the serpent, however, it was ultimately Adam and Eve's fault for giving into the temptation. Then the man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate." And the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." Genesis 3:12-13. It is high time we take a stand, become true adults and take responsibility for our own actions! Why you may ask? Because one day, each individual will have to face his/her Creator without the option of playing the blame game. The inspired Apostle Paul penned "So then each of us shall give account of himself to God," Romans 14:12. Even Peter, through inspiration, wrote "They will give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead," 1 Peter 4:5.

If you or I miss out on heaven, then it's no one's fault but our own!

A Minute with Mac

What a wonderful week we had this past week. I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving holiday with friends and family. My belly is still full from all the good eating. I am glad that you are here today! If you are visiting with us today and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh. There are a lot of great things happening here at Shiloh.

This morning we will do the reverse of what we did last week when we looked and saw how much God loves us by sending Christ. Today we will think about how much we need to love Christ for what He has done for us. This evening we will continue our look at the book of 1st Peter as we look to chapter 3 and verses 18-22. The title of tonight's sermon is "Saved by water." Please make every attempt to be here for both services as we worship God in spirit and truth.

In the auditorium class we will continue our look at Hebrews chapter 12. Remember we should be finishing this book up by the end of the year, so if there is a book of the Bible that you would like for us to tackle on Sunday morning, please let me know.

Don't forget about our Wednesday morning Bible Study and 10 a.m. and the CHAT session that happens each Wednesday from 11—1 at Curtis' Restaurant. Please consider joining us at Curtis' when you can.

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page Also if you are not part of the private Shiloh COC group on Facebook, please join as we post often things our members need to know. Don't forget to check our website each week as we post the bulletin and the sermon outlines each Thursday. We are also printing off the sermon outlines which you can pick up next to the bulletins each week. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
