

“so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God “ Colossians 1:10

Today
Phil Sanders

Today, I will live as if it is the most important day I possess, because it is actually the only day I have.

Today, I will whine and complain less. I will be thankful more, because I know that gratitude makes a better person out of me.

Today, I will criticize less and praise more, because the people I love need to know that I love and approve of them.

Today, I will take more time with God my Father and less with earthly pleasures. I know that I need His strength and guidance.

Today, I will pray more and play less. I want my heavenly Father to know my heart, to hear my concerns, and to realize how thankful I am to be His child.

Today, I will remember my brother more and myself less. I will consider his feelings, his needs and wants more and my own a little less.

Today, I will speak of Jesus more and my other interests less.

Today, He must increase, and I must decrease (John 3:30).

Today, I will remember the souls of all men. I will remember the person who is rude to me still has an eternal soul. I will remember the youth and the weak might see me do something wrong and imitate it. I will remember that my good may encourage another to do right.

Today, I will remember that I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me. Today I will live by faith in the one who loved me and gave Himself for me.

A Minute with Mac

Up and down, up and down. Not only does that describe my weight loss journey, but it also describes the temperatures lately. It seems like everyone is dealing with congestion from this weather pattern. Every time I sniffle, I think “is that you Covid?” But in all seriousness, I grateful that even the weather can’t stop you from being here today. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don’t hesitate to ask.

This morning we will continue our yearly theme of “Into the Future.” This morning we are going to look at a sobering topic. Baring the return of our Lord, everyone one of us, one day, will face death. For some of us, it will happen very quickly, for others, it may be a slow process. This morning we will ask, what will we do “When the time comes to say goodbye?” Are we prepared, or are we concerned because of our lack of preparedness?

This evening we will continue to look through the book of John. Tonight we are going to skip ahead to the end of chapter 12. Lord willing next year we will have a sermon on the first part of chapter 12. Tonight we will look at Jesus’ words concerning “the Reason for the Bible!”

Wednesday evening, Lord willing, we will continue looking at the Intertestamental Period. We will be looking at the conditions that the world was in during the 400 years of silence in between the Old and New Testament. There is a lot that went on that put the world in that perfect place for the Christ to be sent!

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
