The Shiloh
Scoop

IS ONE JUST AS GOOD AS ANOTHER?

When you were seeking a wife—Was one just as good as another?

When you last called the doctor—Was one just as good as another?

When he gave you a dose of medicine—Was one just as good as another?

When the pharmacist filled your prescription—Was one ingredient just as good as another?

When you paid the cashier—Was one amount just as good as another?

When you took your wife to the hospital—Was one baby just as good as another?

When the realtor handed you a deed—Was one just as good as another?

When the bank gave you your statement—Was one just as good as another?

When you got into your car—Was one just as good as another?

When you caught a bus or train—Was one just as good as another?

When Christ shed His blood for His church—How can another be as good as it?
