“so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God “ Colossians 1:10

One Bucket at a Time?

Ron Thomas

“I only have to attend one service each week to be pleasing to God!” Have you heard this before? Perhaps not in these words, but the sentiment is certainly expressed on occasion, whatever words are used. Is it true? Not with the attitude that is seemingly conveyed with the remark (as written above). It has all indications of “Don’t bug me! Is it not good that I am coming at least once?” This is not a question they are asking, but a firm declaration to “drop it.” When I obeyed the Gospel in 1983, it was not long before some started calling me a “Jesus freak” or something similar. It did not matter to me; once I found what I didn’t know I was looking for, I went headlong into a new approach to life. The ripples of which were not always pleasant in the normal experiences of life. Nevertheless, I stayed the course.

Since that time, I have heard many sermons that have not been all that beneficial to me, that is, they were boring or had no real application I could make. Still, when “the doors were open” I (then my family) came; it was important to me, then it became important to us. There were occasions when other things I preferred to do could have been done, but when “the doors were open”, I preferred to enter the doors of the church house instead of going through the doors of another route. We wanted to be present, and we all knew we should be.

Each Sunday morning, our attention is turned to the Lord in worship. We sing praises to His name and honor Him with the life we live. On Sunday evening, we do the same. Do you have a hard time picking up the Bible and reading it because you have no time? If so, that is even more reason you need to be present with the brethren when “the doors are open.”

The evil being thrown against you is having more powerful of an impact than you know. Should you not at least give yourself opportunity to hear the Lord’s message more than one hour weekly? Can you imagine trying to put out a fire that consumes your home with one bucket of water at a time? Our approach to the Lord is not one hour at a time, but a matter of the heart’s attitude. When you think about giving yourself an opportunity to strengthen your faith in the Lord, is it only one hour at a time? Charles Williams’ translation of the New Testament reads in 2 Peter 3:18, “but instead, you must continue to grow in the spiritual strength and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.” Are you?

A Minute
with Mac

We are just three weeks away from our yearly Gospel Meeting! This year is a special one as we will have with us Rob Whitacre speaking to us. Rob will be here helping us train to be better at spreading the Gospel and studying the Gospel with others. I hope all have already determined to be here for each and every service. This meeting/seminar can and will be the turning point for this congregation if we are all here and take what we learn and use it! I am so glad that you have made the decision to be here with us at Shiloh. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning, we will continue our yearly theme of "Think Souls" as we continue with our first quarter idea of "thinking souls like Jesus." Today we will look at the topic of "Loving like Jesus." We are going to look not at what Jesus said on how we are to love, but rather look at His example on how he loved certain individuals!

This evening, Lord willing, we will look at an old childhood/playground song titled "sticks and stones." We all have sang that song when we were younger, but that song is not entirely true, because words do hurt. We will examine the hurtfulness of words, the need to be careful in what we say and how we can make sure we avoid hurting others, including God, with our words.

Wednesday evening, will be our monthly singing night. As usual, if you are leading a song, wait until you are in front of the microphone before you say the song number and give the guys in the PowerPoint room some time to pull the song up before you begin.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
