The Importance of One Individual Dan Jenkins

Do you remember the words of the song you may have learned years ago entitled, “The Apostle Song”? It is the best way to remember the names of the twelve, but have you ever noticed the opening words? “Jesus called them one by one, Peter, Andrew, James and John...”

He called them, but the emphasis is that He called them one by one. Those four fishermen in the first chapter of Mark, who left their nets to follow Him, obviously had prior knowledge of Him. He called them, but He called most of them one by one.

We think of Jesus teaching large multitudes and are right in doing this, but have you thought His work involved one-on-one conversations with individuals? Look at this list.

He had individual, personal conversations with the Samaritan woman; the woman taken in the act of adultery; Mary outside of her house after Lazarus died; Martha outside of her house after Lazarus died; Matthew as he collected taxes; the one thankful leper; the blind man beside the road in Jericho; Legion, the “wild man” of the Gadarenes; the thief on the cross; the child who was used to teach humility; Zacchaeus in the tree; and likely many others. Jesus came to seek and save the lost, but many times He sought them out individually.

How often have we failed to see that, while the Great Commission involves going into all the world, it is most often achieved by taking it to every creature? There is a different emphasis in “all the world” and “every creature.” The commission in our lives always involves person-al, individual contact.

Look at that list again, and see how often the contact with others was not planned contact. Jesus walked on this earth, and as He walked He saw the people around Him. Do we see people around us? I am not asking whether we see their physical presence but am asking a far more important question. Do we see the souls of those around us? We see their bodies, but do we see their souls? Jesus did!

Have you ever had a song come to mind and it stayed with you all day? The lyrics just kept coming to mind. Let me urge you to consciously put this song or at least its lyrics in your mind. It is more than 80 years old.

Lead me to some soul today,

O teach me, Lord, just what to say.

Friends of mine are lost in sin And cannot find their way.

Few there are who seem to care And few there are who pray.

Melt my heart and fill my life, Give me one soul today.

A Minute with Mac

Rain and warm, sun and cold. It is a reoccurring theme it seems like each week. It's no wonder that so many of our number and community are staying sick. I am happy that you are well and that you chose to be here at Shiloh today! If you are visiting with us today and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh. A lot of great things continue to happen here at Shiloh!

This morning we will be continuing our yearly theme of Focus 2020. This morning we be looking at the final part of our two week series on preachers as we look at "The Everyday Preacher." Tonight we will be continuing to build a defense on why we believe like we do as we make "The case for the Bible." I hope you can be with us for both services.

In the auditorium class we will be finishing up our study of James chapter 4 and possible moving on to chapter 5. This is such a great book with a lot of common sense answers for the Christian. I am looking for your input on what to teach after James. The two books I would like to teach are either the book of Acts, or the book of Job. Please let me know which one of these interest you the most!

Don't forget about our Wednesday morning Bible Study at 10 a.m. Consider this an extra study as we have some that come for both the morning and evening Bible Study. Our CHAT session continues each Wednesday from 11—1 at Curtis' Restaurant. Wes and I would love to have you come and join us for some good food and even better fellowship!

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page each week along with our private Shiloh COC group on Facebook as we post often things our members need to know. Don't forget to check our website for the bulletin and sermon outline. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
