Super Bowl Shame Mckinley Pate

Let me begin by stating that I love football. If there is a football game on television, there is a good chance that I am going to be watching it. However, a few years back, I quit watching the biggest football game of the year—the Super Bowl. Some may think that I quit watching because my favorite NFL team (the Miami Dolphins) never have a chance to play in it. Others may think that I quit watching to prove a point on whole kneeling during the national anthem issue. Although those two are very good and possible answers, the real reason I quit watching the game was because of the halftime show. Our society has become so desire driven that events that use to be “family friendly” are not any longer. This past week was just another shameful example of this very thing. Although I did not watch, I could not escape the headlines all over the internet. One such headline from a national newspaper mentioned “poll-dancing” and skimpy outfits as they applauded two women for doing this acts on national television. One opinion headline from another national newspaper stated that the halftime performance should have came with a parental warning. Our society thrives on pushing the envelope. I wonder if we have become like Israel of Jeremiah’s day when they no longer blushed at sin. “Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No! They were not at all ashamed; Nor did they know how to blush,” Jeremiah 6:15. We desperately need to get back to being a society of morals and convictions. When we go down the road where we can not see the clear line between sin and righteousness, we have failed. It is time that we take a stand for God, if we don’t then we will certainly fall for the devil. How do we do take the stand? By teaching and teaching begins at home. “Therefore you shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up, Deuteronomy 11:18-19.

Prayer

Kaleb Jones will be leaving soon for a four month military training exercise. Please pray for him and his family as they will be separated for much of these for months. Kaleb also responded to the invitation asking for forgiveness from God and from anyone that he may have sinned against. We love this wonderful family and are so blessed to have them apart of the Shiloh family. Please let him know that we are here from him and also let Miranda know that we are here for her and Everleigh while Kaleb is away.

We rejoice with the angels in heaven as two precious souls responded to the invitation Sunday morning. Louise Smith responded asking for prayers and forgiveness of anything that she may had a miss in her life. Keri Allen also responded asking for prayers and forgiveness as she states that she has not putting God first in her life as she should. We love these two precious souls and the example of true, humble followers of Christ they are. Let us all pray for them and encourage them as they continue their daily walk as Christians!

A Minute with Mac

Well I'm not sure whether or not to break out my summer clothes or my insulated coveralls. This weather can not make up its mind. But I am glad that you made up your mind and chose to be here at Shiloh today! If you are visiting with us today and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh. A lot of great things continue to happen here at Shiloh!

This morning we will be continuing our yearly theme of Focus 2020. This morning we conclude a two part series about deacons. The sermon title is "What deacons do." Tonight we will begin a new series making a case for different biblical topics. As we all know our faith is on constant trial by the world, therefore we will build a case for what we know and believe. I hope you can be with us for both services.

In the auditorium class we will continue our study in the book of James as we are in chapter 3. This is such a great book with a lot of common sense answers for the Christian.

Don't forget about our Wednesday morning Bible Study at 10 a.m. We are looking at all 4 Gospel accounts chronologically. We would love to have you even if you normally attend the evening service. Consider this an extra study as we have some that come for both the morning and evening Bible Study. Our CHAT session continues each Wednesday from 11—1 at Curtis' Restaurant. Wes and I would love to have you come and join us for some good food and even better fellowship!

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page each week along with our private Shiloh COC group on Facebook as we post often things our members need to know. Don't forget to check our website for the bulletin and sermon outline. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
