All things must come to an end

Mckinley Pate

Here we are at the end of another fun-filled college football season. As of this Monday night, the 2019 college football season will officially be over. A new champion will be crowned and for all the teams, it is back to the drawing board. Six months ago, I thought that the season would never begin, and here we are. As quickly as it began, it is over.

But isn't that true about everything in life, including life itself. The older I get the more I realize it. Life is fleeing ever so quickly. It seems like yesterday that I was taking the best looking girl I had ever seen out on our first date to Six Flags over Georgia, and here we are over 24 years and four children later. Life has surely flown by.

But although it sometimes surprises me how quickly my life has flown by, it shouldn't. Our life manual (the Bible) has been telling us all along that our life was just for a moment. Moses penned “The days of our lives are seventy years; And if by reason of strength they are eighty years, Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; For it is soon cut off, and we fly away,” Psalm 90:10. James wrote “whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away,” James 4:14.

I know that one day my life will come to an end (Hebrews 9:27). That is just a fact of this old world. Because of this fact I must ask myself the daily question, what am I doing in my brief time on this earth to please and honor God. Too soon my life will end, and the win—loss record will not matter. All that will matter is whether or not I am a champion for God. “Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us,” Romans 8:37.

Live for God everyday, for soon this life will be over and you will be glad you did!

A Minute with Mac

Mother nature can't figure out if it's going to be winter, spring or fall. All of these temperature changes are making many sick. Then on top of that we are still in flu season. But I am glad that you are well and I am grateful that you chose to be here today! If you are visiting with us today and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh. A lot of great things continue to happen here at Shiloh!

This morning Wes will be bringing our sermon to us as he continues on our yearly Focus 2020 theme. Wes will be speaking to us about "Christians." Wes always does a great job and we are blessed to have him with us at Shiloh. Sunday evening I will be continuing our look at 1 Peter as we look at chapter 4 verses 12-19. We will be asking the question "why should one become a Christian. I hope you can be with us for both services.

In the auditorium class we will continue our study in the book of James as we look to finish up chapter 1. This is such a great book with a lot of common sense answers for the Christian.

Don't forget about our Wednesday morning Bible Study at 10 a.m. We are looking at all 4 Gospel accounts chronologically. We would love to have you even if you normally attend the evening service. Consider this an extra study as we have some that come for both the morning and evening Bible Study. Our CHAT session continues each Wednesday from 11—1 at Curtis' Restaurant. Wes and I would love to have you come and join us for some good food and even better fellowship!

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page each week along with our private Shiloh COC group on Facebook as we post often things our members need to know. Don't forget to check our website for the bulletin and sermon outline. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
