Spiritual Bucket List
Bart Warren

Creating the proverbial ‘bucket list’ can be a lot of fun. Coming up with a list of things you would like to do one day in the not-too-distant future is also a good way to take the first step in accomplishing your goals.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are expected to be growing (1 Peter 2:2; 2 Peter 3:18). We are also expected to be a positive influence on those around us, pointing people toward God (Matthew 5:13-16).

In light of these things, it may be helpful to create some sort of “spiritual bucket list.” A list of things you know you should be doing as you mature in your faith.

Here are a few suggestions to help get you started:

Teach Someone. Have a real Bible study where you sit down, open Bibles all around, and you present the life-saving message of the Gospel. (Matthew 28:19; 2 Timothy 2:2).

Reconcile a broken relationship. For many of us, there is at least one person out there that needs to hear; “please forgive me” from you (Romans 12:18).

Really study on your own. Away from the church building, pick a book of the Bible or a topic and really dive in and learn (1 Timothy 2:15).

What is Your Focus?

Charles Box

A New Year is upon us. What your heart is focused on is eternally important. Jesus said, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (Matthew 6:21). Are you passionate to have a heart like Jesus, and to focus on what He was focused on? A heart like Jesus is a pure heart. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" (Matthew 5:8). Purity of heart requires patience, decency, and discretion. A heart like Jesus is meek and humble. "Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart and you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:29). Christians must take heart or take courage (John 16:33). Life has difficulties and where your heart is will determine your reaction. A strong spiritual heart will get you through life and prepare you to be with God eternally. Is your heart right with God and loving toward men?
