“so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God” Colossians 1:10

Thanks for holding the ropes Mckinley Pate

I already know that I’m going to catch some flack from one person over this article, but so be it. In Acts chapter 9, Saul (who would later be known as the Apostle Paul) had just been converted and many of the Jews wanted to kill him. As a matter of fact in verse 24 tells us that the Jews were watching “the gates day and night, to kill him.” However their plan would be side tracked by some unnamed followers of Christ. Verse 25 states “ Then the disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall in a large basket.” I’ve often wondered who was holding the ropes. The Bible never reveals that information to us. There are disciples everywhere, and in every congregation who simple “holds the ropes” and they never get the credit for what they do. I know we have several here at Shiloh who just simply put in the work that is needed to keep us a faithful and fruitful congregation. One of those people here at Shiloh has been holding the ropes for over 44 years, and has been the glue that has kept us together for a very long time. Jo Holden is that person. It didn’t take me long to realize just how much sister Jo does for this congregation each and every week. Jo is the type of person who is humble and never wants to take any credit for what she does. She began working as the Secretary for the congregation in 1975. Over the past 44 years, a lot of people have come and gone, including Elders, Deacons, and Preachers, but the one constant was Jo Holden. Her impact on this congregation while she was secretary will be remembered for a long time. Her devotion to her job is a testament to what kind of person she is. Through thick and thin she has always put God and the congregation at Shiloh first. As her and Glen begin a new stage in life, we all wish them the best and are grateful that they will continue to worship with us here at Shiloh. I could go on and on about what Jo Holden means to me and to this congregation, but since she is probably mad at me for even giving her credit, I will simply end by saying what we all want to say—THANK YOU and WE LOVE YOU!

“Notes in the Key of A”

Good Morning! Welcome to Shiloh!
We are so glad that you have joined us for worship this morning. If you are visiting with us please stick around and let us get to know you.

There are some young ladies in our group who need your help. Ansley Hines and Olivia Roberson are taking donations for FCCLA Nationals in Washington D.C.

These ladies are involved in a “Reuse; Recycle” Project and they could use the following items:

- * Coke Cans
- * Glass Bottle Lids
- * Spray Paint

Please see Ansley or Olivia with any questions you might have.

Have a great week for God!

I love you,
Wes

New Schedules:

A Minute with Mac

If you don't know how to swim, you might want to learn. The Lord has blessed us with an abundance of rain over the past couple of weeks. I am glad that we have a wonderful building to meet in to keep us out of the elements. And I am glad that you that you chose to be here at Shiloh today! If you are visiting with us today and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh. A lot of great things continue to happen here at Shiloh!

This morning we will be bringing our sermon to us as he continues on our yearly Focus 2020 theme. This morning starts a two part lesson on Elders as we look at the title, Elders—why and who. Tonight I will be continuing our look at 1 Peter as we look at chapter 5 verses 5-6. We will be looking at the topic titled "Humble Yourselves." I hope you can be with us for both services.

In the auditorium class we will continue our study in the book of James as we look to finish up chapter 1 and move onto chapter 2. This is such a great book with a lot of common sense answers for the Christian.

Don't forget about our Wednesday morning Bible Study at 10 a.m. We are looking at all 4 Gospel accounts chronologically. We would love to have you even if you normally attend the evening service. Consider this an extra study as we have some that come for both the morning and evening Bible Study. Our CHAT session continues each Wednesday from 11—1 at Curtis' Restaurant. Wes and I would love to have you come and join us for some good food and even better fellowship!

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page each week along with our private Shiloh COC group on Facebook as we post often things our members need to know. Don't forget to check our website for the bulletin and sermon outline. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
