Are You Missing Ingredients?

Joshua Pettigrew

Recently we had a lot of bananas get really ripe, so I started to make a big batch of banana muffins. I took them out of the oven, gave them a taste, and realized right away that something was wrong. I had forgotten to add the butter. I had put the amount of butter called for by the recipe in a bowl and melted it in the microwave. There it stayed, forgotten, until I discovered my error. The muffins tasted...alright, but they weren't what they could've been if I had not failed to add this critical ingredient.

What is your missing ingredient(s)? In Mark 10:17-22, a man, described as a “Jewish leader” in Luke 18, comes to Jesus with an important question: “What must I do to inherit eternal life?” After telling him to follow the law, the man asserted that he has done so since his youth. Jesus was able to seize upon the missing ingredient that he lacked, and he wasn't very happy about it.

What are we lacking? Are we even asking the question? Do we even want to know?

If you want eternal life then it is a question you must ask. Being a Christian is a process that begins upon obedience to the Gospel. Paul the apostle suffered a great deal for Christ. We would describe him as a person of great faith, and unashamed of the Gospel. Yet he described himself as someone with more to do. In Philippians 3:10-14 he says that he has not yet obtained eternal life and arrived at his goal. He says: “I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.” If Paul says this, then we cannot sit on our hands and say we have no more work to do.

Therefore, it is necessary that we ask the question: What yet must I do? We should follow the lead of the rich young ruler and ask God about it. We should consult God's word, comparing ourselves to the recipe for life found there, and we should add whatever ingredients are missing to make ourselves all that we can be in service to our Lord.

When It Seems All Is Lost
Bart Warren

When it seems all is lost...remember that the Creator sees us (Job 34:21; Psalm 33:13-15; Heb. 4:13).

When it seems all is lost...remember that this world is not all that there is (Job 1:6; 2:1; 16:19; Rev. 21:3-4; Matt. 25:46).

When it seems all is lost...remember that our Redeemer lives (Job 19:25; Heb. 7:25; Rev. 1:17-18)!

Covid numbers continue to climb. More and more our number are dealing with this horrible virus. Thankfully most have had very light symptoms and are recovering quickly. Please feel free to protect yourself by wearing a mask if you feel like it. Please to continue to take precautions such as washing hands, especially inside the building so that we don't have a huge outbreak. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask. We missed being with you all last week due to being in quarantine, but are looking forward to today!

This morning, we will, Lord willing, do what we intended to do last week and continue our look at Thinking Souls like Jesus. Today we are going to focus inwardly as we look at the topic of "Forgiving like Jesus." Jesus spoke a lot on the idea of forgiveness, and because of time, we won't be able to look at every instance that Jesus spoke about forgiveness, but I hope that this sermon will benefit you in being better at forgiving going forward.

This evening we are going to change things up as we take a break from the book of John. This evening we will be taking our sermon from the book of Revelation as we look at chapter one and verse seven as see "Behold, He is coming."

Wednesday evening, Lord willing, we will continue our verse by verse look at the book of Matthew. Please go ahead and be reading up on Matthew chapter 3 and 4! The first two chapters went by very quickly, however, we will be going to slow down when we get to chapter 5.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
