A New Year: Time to Take Inventory

Allen Jones

As we begin a new year, may we “take inventory” of our spiritual lives. Most businesses or organizations (the ones that are successful) will ask three questions in terms of their direction: “Where have we been? Where are we? Where are we going?” Our spiritual lives are of far greater importance than any business or organization. The church is paramount and is no comparison to some man made organization or institution. But, we can draw a few parallels when taking inventory of our spiritual lives. Second Corinthians 13:5 says, “Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified.”

Please consider the following questions as we plan our spiritual growth for 2022:

- Am I known as a Christian where I work?
- Is Christ more loved or respected because of the way I live?
- Do I criticize the church and Christians in front of my children?
- Do people know me as one who has Christ in the center of my life?
- Is it possible that I claim to be a Christian and nurse revenge on others?
- Do I find time every day for Bible study?
- Can I work with other people? Can other people work with me?
- Do I have a secret longing to be first? Or can I truly say I do not care who is second, third, or fourth as long as Jesus is first?
- How can I do a better job of leading others to Christ?
- Have I grown as a Christian in knowledge and service compared to three years ago?

As the days roll by this year, may we seek to truly walk with Christ as well as grow closer to Him.

Service Time Reminder:

Today is our 5th Sunday, therefore we will be meeting at 1:00 p.m. instead of 5:00 p.m. Please plan to be with us this afternoon as our young men lead the service!

Thank you:

We received a card from Nell White's children which stated the following:
Thank you so much for your love, concern and prayers. Mom loved her church family with all or her heart. We appreciate the calls, food and flowers. We will miss her forever but we know she is in a better place.
Kenny White & Myra Osment

Sympathy:

We express our deepest sympathy to the friends and family of Murrel Johns who passed away last week. His funeral was held on the 22nd. Please remember this family in your daily prayers.

A Minute
with Mac

Another week and many of our number are dealing with this virus. Please remember to pray that this virus will soon weaken and that we can get back to normal. I am thankful that you are here and please feel free to protect yourself by wearing a mask if you feel like it. Please to continue to take precautions such as washing hands, especially inside the building so that we don't have a huge outbreak. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask. We missed being with you all last week due to being in quarantine, but are looking forward to today!

This morning, Jake will be bringing our lesson to us. He will continue on our theme of Thinking Souls like Jesus as he looks at "Wisdom like Jesus." I am thankful for Jake and for what he does for us here at Shiloh. I know he will do a great job and I am looking forward to hearing him. Please give him your undivided attention and encourage him today!

This afternoon, Lord willing, our young men will lead our worship service. We have wonderful group of capable young men here at Shiloh and are grateful for all that they do. Please encourage them this afternoon and let them know how proud we are of them and what they do!

Wednesday evening, Lord willing, we will continue our verse by verse look at the book of Matthew. Please go ahead and be reading up on Matthew chapter 3 and 4! The first two chapters went by very quickly, however, we will being to slow down when we get to chapter 5.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
