Watch Out for the Trap
Jonathan Burns

Once there was a little fly who saw a spider’s web in the corner of the room. “I’ll fly away from it,” he thought; “For if I should get one foot in it I might get two, and soon I would be caught all together.” Wasn’t this little fly a wise fellow? In the same room was a little girl who had broken a vase. Something whispered in her ear, “Hide the pieces and don’t tell mother.” “No, no!” she said. “If I should deceive mother once, I might again, and pretty soon I should be telling lies. I won’t begin.” Wasn’t she a wise little girl?

Notice these words from Hebrews 12:1-2: “Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.”

Scripture teaches us that we can see the weight of sin that so easily fools us. James 1:20 tells us that we are temped in very specific ways based on our own lusts. Temptation is not the sin (James 1:21), but we know that we can beat sin. First Corinthians 10:14 declares that we must not let life be an excuse because everyone has faced temptation throughout the history of mankind. We are not to act like we are the only ones who have to deal with temptation, but we must live in a way that helps us watch out for the traps of sin.

The little fly and the little girl both understood that if we get too close to the trap then we will be caught. We as God’s children must learn and understand that Christ is calling us away from the traps of life into an everlasting home.

Jonathan preaches for the Findlay church of Christ in Sparta, TN and is a 2013 graduate of MSOP

A Minute
with Mac

Another hot week is in the books. It's weeks like this that makes me appreciate an air conditioned building more and more. Thank you all so much for coming out last night and being so kind to me and my family and for the wonderful food. We are going to miss you all so much. If you are visiting with us today, I want you to know that you are honored guest and that if you have any questions about what is done or what is said, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning, we will pick back up with our yearly theme of Think Souls! We will be looking at the early life of Paul, back when he was known as Saul. We will try to look and see what Saul had to see so that he could become a follower of Christ. The title of the sermon is "Seeing like Saul."

This evening, we will look at the book of James and look at the idea of obeying God's Word. Many today want to have a "relationship" with God without following His commands. Lord willing we will look at the idea of being "Doers of the Word," from James chapter one.

During our Bible Class time, brother Ronnie Ray will continue his look at the book of Galatians. We are grateful for Ronnie and his ability to preach and teach God's Word.

Don't forget about our opportunities for studying God's Word during the week. Each Wednesday morning we have a Bible Study here at the building that is for all ages beginning at 10 a.m. Then we have our mid-week devotional and Bible Study each Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m. This week we will continue our Summer Series. Our overall theme is "Encouraging Statements from the Bible." Justin Pannell will be our guest speaker this week as he will bring a lesson on "God shall supply all your needs."

Thanks so much for being here—it's going to be a great day!
