A Minute
with Mac

What an emotional week! It was bittersweet this past Sunday as we announced our intention to step away as the minister for the congregation here at Shiloh. As stated, we are doing this so that we can move and be closer to our oldest son and family. Grandbabies tend to run the show (those of you who are grandparents understand). However, we are not gone yet and we are going to enjoy our last few weeks with you all. If you are visiting with us today, I want you to know that you are honored guest and that if you have any questions about what is done or what is said, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning, we will pause with our yearly theme of Think Souls! Instead we are going to focus on the idea of Freedom today, since we will celebrate our Independence Day as a country tomorrow. This morning, we are going to look at our spiritual independence and see that "Freedom wasn't Free." We will be looking at what it cost Christ for our freedom from spiritual death and sin!

This evening, we will continue looking at the idea of Freedom as we answer the question, "Freedom from What?" Lord willing, we will look at five things that we as Christians can be free from today!

Don't forget about our opportunities for studying God's Word during the week. Each Wednesday morning we have a Bible Study here at the building that is for all ages beginning at 10 a.m. Then we have our mid-week devotional and Bible Study each Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m. This week we will begin our Summer Series. Our overall theme is "Encouraging Statements from the Bible." Ben Siegal will be our guest speaker this week as he will bring a lesson on "For God so loved the world."

Thanks so much for being here—it's going to be a great day!
