So what will happen when Christ returns Mckinley Pate

So now that we have established that there will be no signs leading up to Christ’s return. The next thing we must ask is, what will happen when Christ returns. There is probably more misunderstanding about the return of Christ than the moments leading up to His return. The reason for the misunderstanding is because of one big word—Premillennialism.

Wait-what in the wide world of sports is Premillennialism you may ask? The idea of Premillennialism comes from one verse in the book of Revelation. “And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.” Revelation 20:4. There are those in the religious world who believe from this verse that Christ will return to the earth and reign on the earth as King for 1000 years (or a millennial).

There are four types of people in the religious world on the subject of the millennial (1000 year) reign of Christ. First there is the Postmillennialist. They believe that Christ 1000 year reign here on earth will happen before the seven years of tribulation (don’t worry we will talk about that next week). Second you have the Midmillennialist. They believe that they will be raptured half way through the tribulation. And then the 1000 year reign will begin and the second half of the tribulation will happen after the 1000 year reign. (I know, this is making my head hurt also; but bear with me). Third you have the Premillennialist, which is, hands down, the most popular of the four. They believe that the rapture and seven years of tribulation will happen before Christ returns to reign 1000 years on earth. And finally fourth you have the Amillennialist. This is the category that I belong to. The Amillennialist believe that the 1000 year reign is simply symbolic. We believe that Christ is reigning now on the SPIRITUAL throne of David in His spiritual Kingdom which is the Church. Lord willing we will focus on many of the aspects of Premillennialism over the next few weeks, beginning next week as we look at the Rapture and the 7 years of Tribulation. We will use scripture to show us if this is correct or false. (Spoiler alert, it is false).

A Minute with Mac

Here we are one day removed from celebrating our country's independence from the rule of Great Britain. Two hundred and forty-four years ago the colonies signed this historic document largely written by Thomas Jefferson. I am glad for our independence mainly because it allows us to do what we are doing today, and that is worshipping our God. I'm so glad that you are here this morning!

This morning, as we are on the heels of the independence holiday, I want us to think about our spiritual independence as we ask the question "Have You Gained Your Independence?" We will look to the Bible to find out how we can gain our independence from sin, from Satan's message and from the second death.

Due to not having in-person Bible Classes, later this afternoon, there will be a pre-recorded bible class uploaded to our Facebook page. We will be looking at Psalm chapter 7. Please leave any comments or questions that you may have and we will discuss them on during the next bible study. Also be on the look out for Wes' weekly teen bible study also. You can also find it on his YouTube channel or on our website. Wes updated our website, so go and check it out. He did a great job and we appreciate his hard work for the congregation here at Shiloh.

Please join us live each Wednesday night at 6:30 as we will have our Summer Series. This year's theme is What Jesus Said. This Wednesday night Seth Pettus will be speaking to us on the topic "What Jesus said about Himself. Please tune in to our Facebook page, our YouTube channel or our Website to watch live.

Please continue to pray for one another and check on one another. Pray for our country as we are facing a time of disarray. Continue to pray for our Eldership as they shepherd us through this difficult time! Love you all and stay safe!
