Father’s Day Perspective
Brandon Britton

Father’s Day, what does it mean to you? Its meaning has changed for me over the years. When I was young’ it was a day to wear a red rose to church. It was a day to say, “Thanks Dad for all the things you do.” Later, when I became a dad, it took on a deeper meaning as I began to realize all the responsibilities that go with the title. Now, being a father and a grandfather it takes on a special meaning. I look back at the memory of my own father with warm thoughts and understand him better.

I look to the future by looking in the eyes of my son. I see the strength of young manhood and hope and pray that I have been and am being the kind of example he needs to see to know what being a Christian father is all about. I look into the eyes of my grandson and see the wonder of new things as he learns to explore his world in which there are new things every day. Again, I hope and pray that I am being the example that he needs to see to know what being a Christian grandfather is all about.

Father’s day is a wonderful day to stop and reflect on being a father. It is a time to think of the great privilege that God has granted men to become fathers, and to help shape and mold a young mind and soul. It is a time to think that with this privilege comes great responsibilities, as the apostle Paul wrote in Ephesians 6:4, “And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition the Lord.”

Fathers, notice there are two parts to this verse. One is a negative, “provoke not.” This provoking is done by making too many demands, undue severity when disciplining our children. The other part is a positive, “bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” This requires instruction, spiritual and moral nurture as well as physical (Matt. 4:4). As the children grow older, then we need to give them admonition, that reasoning for which they should or should not do certain things (Deut. 6:6-9). Fathers, there will be no greater reward than getting to heaven and being surrounded by our families! Have a great Father’s Day!

A Minute
with Mac

What a hot and humid week we've had. With the temperatures like they were this past week, I can't even fathom about how hot hell will be for many who choose to go there. Also I'm thankful for God's Love and Mercy on the fact that Heaven awaits for those who follow Him. And I am thankful for you, that you are wanting to follow God and that you are here. If you are visiting with us today, I want you to know that you are honored guest and that if you have any questions about what is done or what is said, please don't hesitate to ask. We want to please God and want to make sure that we are truly doing what the Word of God requires us to do to be pleasing to Him.

This morning, we will pick back up on our yearly theme of Think Souls! This morning we will look at "following Jesus like Peter." Lord willing, we will look at some struggles we may face as we follow Jesus today and see how Peter overcame those struggles.

This evening, we will celebrate our fathers with a typical Father's Day sermon that we all should be able to apply to our lives. Tonight we will look at the idea of "like father, like son" as we see the proper way and the not so proper way to be an example to our children and others.

Don't forget about our opportunities for studying God's Word during the week. Each Wednesday morning we have a Bible Study here at the building that is for all ages beginning at 10 a.m. Then we have our mid-week devotional and Bible Study each Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m. Lord willing, we will continue with our study of the book of Matthew in the auditorium class on Wednesday night.

Thanks so much for being here—it's going to be a great day!
