THE BEST USE OF OUR TIME

How we use those precious minutes God gives us each day can determine our eternal destiny. Even David failed to use his time wisely on at least one occasion. The Bible describes that time, "It happened in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle...but David remained at Jerusalem. Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house and from the roof he saw a woman bathing and..." (2Sam. 11:1-2). He missed the opportunity to destroy the enemies of Israel, and this missed opportunity ruined the rest of his life.

Now think about us as we apply the words of Paul, "Redeeming the time" (Eph. 5:16; Col. 4:5). Are we unconsciously missing opportunities to use our time better? Consider these suggestions.

Every day at school, work, home or in our daily walk we encounter people. Do we miss opportunities to let them know of or show them a far better life they could have? We have countless opportunities to let our lights shine and represent the Kingdom well. Are we intentional in doing just that?

Remember to redeem the time.

How often do we get so busy that we are blind to obvious opportunities to impact others for good? We can easily get so caught up in our day that we neglect those precious moments to show someone Jesus. To speak a kind word or to lend a helping hand. It could even be as simple as listening to someone when they need it the most. Are we engaging others with the gospel in our lives? Remember to redeem the time.

We also can easily miss how special it is to encourage each other in worship. Our Lord clearly states to us that each of us is to speak to all others in psalms/hymns. There is the power of united prayer together. When two or three pray together, it makes a difference. It is so uplifting to worship and visit with each other. Think of the impact if we did this more than one hour each week. Why do so many not see the blessing and benefit (and need) to be together at every service and or function of the Church? What possibly could be as pressing for each of us, as the need to worship with, study with and fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ? It should be that we long for this time together as the body of Christ! It is truly using your time wisely when you pre-determine to meet with the church each time it gathers together. Don't make excuses to be absent but desire to be present! Remember to redeem the time.

In the verse preceding the instruction to "redeem the time," Paul told the Ephesians to "walk circumspectly." That is, to inspect all the things that are around us. The ESV translates, "Look carefully then how you walk, not unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time" (Eph. 5:15-16). That just about sums it up. To redeem the time is not to focus on the misuse of the past but focus on the proper use of the present. Think carefully. Is there a way to make better use of your time?
