I Want To Go To Heaven
Al Behel

“Every athlete exercises self-control...They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable one...” (1 Corinthians 9:25)

John “Pepper” Martin played for the St. Louis Cardinals and was the star of the 1931 World Series. Following one of those games, Pepper was interviewed by a newsman. The first question he was asked was, “Pepper, what’s your chief ambition?” Without hesitating, Pepper responded, “My chief ambition is to go to heaven.”

The newsman who interviewed Pepper Martin laughed at his response and said rather sarcastically, “Oh, you want to play a harp, eh?” Martin shot back at him, “My friend, I don’t think that is funny. I know you don’t mean to be a smart aleck, but there’s something wrong with a person’s attitude when he’s flippant about serious things. If there’s anything foolish about reading the Bible every day and believing what it says, and if there’s anything funny about wanting to go to heaven when you leave this world, then I’m afraid life here isn’t worth living.”

What a goal! To go to heaven. I’ve often asked people, “If you could go anywhere and do anything, what would you choose?” The responses have been interesting. A common response is, “I’d like to go to Europe, Paris, or to Greece, etc.” I don’t remember anyone saying, “I’d like to go to heaven.”

The Christian life is like running a race. In the ancient Olympic games, the winner received a perishable wreath of ivy or pine. We are in a race for an imperishable wreath that will never decay. We want to go to heaven. Nothing we gain in life, in our careers, or accumulate through wealth will be taken into our caskets. Our friends will not go with us. We will go alone. All earthly treasures will be left behind. But we look beyond these temporary trinkets to an eternal home where we will live for all eternity. In the words of our hymn, “Heaven will surely be worth it all.”

Well our spring Gospel Meeting/Evangelism Seminar has come to a close. What a wonderful job brother Rob Whitacre did on preparing us to be in the Lord's Army and to get on the battle field to lead others to Christ. If you were not able to attend all of the sessions, please go to our Facebook or YouTube pages and watch the sessions. It is time that we put what we have learned into use and begin evangelizing the Greenhill community! Souls are depending on us, and eternity is to long for us to do nothing! If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning, we will continue our yearly theme of "Think Souls" as we finish up our first quarter idea of "thinking souls like Jesus." Today we will look at the topic of "Building Relationships like Jesus." We have to understand that in order to lead others to the foot of the cross, we must build relationships with them!

This evening, Lord willing, we will look at how and why we as Christians should rejoice. Many times as Christians, we look at our Christianity as a chore and something that is painful to do, however, we should be rejoicing everyday that we are in favor with the Almighty God!

Wednesday evening, brother Ronnie Ray will be leading our discussion in our auditorium bible class! We will be taking a break from the book of Matthew for a couple of more weeks, but Lord willing we will pick back up in it on the first Wednesday of April as we look at Matthew 5:43.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
