Choose Your Own Ending Matt Clifton

When I was a child in school I came across the Choose Your Own Adventure book series. It touted that “you are the star of the story,” and you could choose from 40 possible endings. The reader made choices at critical parts of the story, and would then turn to a certain page to continue the story. I hated it when I ended up falling into a canyon! Just like in real life, every choice had consequences.

In the Bible, Israel was faced with a great many choices that determined the nation’s outcome. Observe the Passover, or neglect the command (Ex. 12:21-28)? Stay with God, or return to Egypt (Ex. 14:10-12)? Obey God’s law, or rebel (Ex. 24:3-8)? Allow fear to rule, or trust God’s strength (Num. 13-14)? Serve God, or return to idols (Joshua 24:14-15)? On and on it went!

There were many other crucial moments in the history of Israel, but none more pivotal that the day Christ walked among them. The choice was eternal life, or eternal punishment (John 10:10-11; Matt. 25:31-46; Mark 16:16).

Like those who first heard the gospel in the first century, we also have set before us a blessing or a curse, and we are given the privilege to choose our own ending! His word over our own will (Matthew 7:24-27). Love over hate (John 13:34-35; Luke 6:27). Spirit over flesh (Romans 8:13).

It’s your adventure. What will you choose?

A Minute with Mac

I am missing you all this morning and can't wait to be back with you all, Lord willing, next Sunday. This week I am attending the Memphis School of Preaching Lectureships. This is a great way for me to be recharged and hear some great Gospel Preaching from some of the greats in our brotherhood. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning, Jake will be bringing the sermon to us. We are grateful for all that Jake and Meredith do for not only our youth, but for the entire congregation here at Shiloh!

This evening, Lord willing, Wes will be bringing our evening lesson to us. Wes always does a great job and we are blessed to have him, Chapel and the boys here at Shiloh!

Wednesday evening, we will have our monthly song service. Please remember that if you plan to lead a song, you wait until you are behind the microphone to announce your number and give the guys a few seconds to pull up on the song on the screen before you begin. Lord willing we will pick back up in it on the first Wednesday of April as we look at Matthew 5:43.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
