The Other Person That Heard the Sermon

Barry Haynes

In Acts 24 we read of a sermon that was delivered to Felix: “But some days later Felix arrived with Drusilla, his wife who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. But as he was discussing righteousness, self-control and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, “Go away for the present, and when I find time I will summon you” (Acts 24:24-25).

Although Felix was just looking for a payday (vs 26) this sermon seemed to have an effect on him. It probably bothered him since Felix didn’t have much self-control and wouldn’t seemly fare well in the judgment to come. Felix was there with his third wife Drusilla, a woman he had seduced away from her first husband. These convoluted marriages seem to be all the rage in these ruling circles (Mark 6:17), but the truth Paul preached didn’t jibe with this type lifestyle. So Felix sent him away for a more convenient time. We don’t know if Felix found time to obey the Gospel. We do however know Drusilla didn’t have the time.

In a few years after this, history tells us about Drusilla’s death. She and the son she had by Felix fell victim to the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in Pompeii. As you may know the sudden erupt caught the people unaware many frozen in time by the lava that claimed their lives.

We often think about how Felix putting off the response to Biblical teaching cost him, but it also cost those with him. His wife, one that should have been well acquainted with the God of the Jews, was there when the message was put on hold. It might have been the last chance for her to do something about her eternal fate

Our response, or lack thereof, to the Gospel, doesn’t just affect us. It will shape the destinies of our spouses or children and our grandchildren. Don’t wait to obey; even it is hard, even if it scares us. The best time to respond is now!

New Directory:

We are planning a new directory without pictures. Our current directory is very out of date and we have several new members and we need to update addresses on several members. Forms are on the round table for each family to fill out and put back in the basket on the table. If you have a bulletin delivered to you, a form will be in the bulletin. Please complete the form and give back to Roger or Mckinley. If the bulletin is mailed to you, call the office on Tuesday or Thursday morning from 9:00 to 11:00 and give Donna your information. Thank you for your help with this.

A Minute

Spring is here and so are the allergies that come with it. I apologize for the excessive coughing from this past week due to my allergies. Prayerfully they will be better soon. Thankfully we have a wonderful building to be in this morning so we are out of the elements. What a great day it is going to be and I am encouraged by your presence today! If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and if you have any questions about what transpires this morning, please feel free to ask.

Brother Mosher did an outstanding job last week, speaking to us on the subject “will we recognize one another in Heaven.” Several people have told me that it was the best sermon they heard on the topic. I am thankful to the Eldership in allowing him to come and preach to us.

Today we have another great speaker in Wes Ayers. Wes will be concluding our first semester theme of 2021—Into the Future—Individuals. Wes will be looking and asking the question “Are you Ready?” I always look forward to hearing Wes speak each month.

During the Bible Class time, in the auditorium we will continue our look at the book of Acts. Remember we are going to look at the majority of the book of Acts with our Theophilus glasses. Today we start chapter 2 and will really look at several key components of this chapter. Remember teachers to make sure you get a count for daily Bible readers and for those who study for their lesson.

This evening Wes will also be speaking to us again. I am looking forward to hearing another message from him that we can apply to our lives. I appreciate what Wes and his family do for all of us here at Shiloh. Please be sure to let him know how glad we are to have them here!
