This weeks Thoughts

Mckinley Pate

To say that the last couple of weeks have been challenging is an understatement. We are at an unprecedented time in this world. Never in most of our lives have we seen the world come to a stand still, however we as Christians must continue to live for God. I want to thank our Eldership for their constant care for us as well as their love for following the Lord. Please continue to pray for them as they shepherd us during this difficult time. I also want to thank Wes for his willingness and his ability to set the livestream on Facebook. He does so much that most do not even see, and he does it because he loves God and each on of us. Wes had a wonderful sermon this past week on prayer. This week, Lord willing, we will be looking a Satan and suffering. Please join us live on Facebook Sunday morning at 10 a.m. Also Wes and I will be livestreaming our Wednesday night Bible Study also on our Facebook page at 6:30 p.m. If you have not liked our page, go to Facebook and search for Shiloh Church of Christ and then hit the like button so that you will always know what is going on here at Shiloh.

This week past week has also been wonderful. Monday night, Mike and Tammy Coker obeyed the Gospel. We are so proud of their decision to follow Christ and to be baptized to have their sins washed away. Please welcome them to the Shiloh family. Also we received a card from the Coker family. It states “From the family of Sheila Coker, we want to thank Shiloh Church of Christ for the wonderful meal after mom’s funeral, it was very much appreciated. God bless all at Shiloh Church of Christ. Also for the beautiful church. Mike and Tammy Coker.” Thank you for all you did and continue to do for this family. What a joy it is to be a part of the God’s family here at Shiloh.

Remember to continue to pray, and live for the Lord each and every day. Remember to pray for our Elders as they are doing a great job during a very bad situation. Please remember that our task is to bring others to the Lord, not to tear one another down. Love you all!

"Notes in the Key of A"

The last few weeks have been very surreal. They have been challenging. They have also been encouraging. I know as we battle this virus all across the world, the threat is real.

However, one thing I have also noticed, the Church, is strong. Thank you to our elders for providing us with the means to be able to livestream our services and Bible Study.

Thank you to you for your encouragement and tuning in to our streamed services. Keep doing great thing for the Kingdom!

I cannot wait to be in services with you again!

Have a great week for God!
I love you,
Wes
