A Minute
with Mac

We are just one week away from our annual Homecoming event. The past two have been hampered by the pandemic, but prayerfully this year we will have a house full. I am excited to have fellow Memphis School of Preaching graduate, Daniel Rogers as our guest speaker for Homecoming. Please be making plans to come and invite a friend or multiple friends. Remember that today is our 5th Sunday and due to that, we will have a 12:30 service and we will not meet back here for our 5 p.m. service this evening. Check out the times on the front of the bulletin for our Homecoming services. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning, we continue with our "Think Souls" yearly theme as we look at one of the most influential and least talked about disciple in the Bible and that is Ananias. Today we will look at "Discipling like Ananias."

This afternoon we will be looking at the "Names of God." God is called by many names and there are many names that describe God. Lord willing, we will look at some of those and then we will also examine ways that we unfortunately use these names of God in an irreverent way. I hope you make plans to return at 12:30 this afternoon for our afternoon service.

Wednesday evening, we will continue with our look at the book of Matthew. Please make plans to join us as we look at the life of Jesus. Remember that we have classes for all ages including a ladies class on Wednesday night.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
