What COVID Taught Me To Appreciate

Mckinley Pate

Over a month ago, I was diagnosed with COVID-19. At first I thought it was just a simple sinus infection, but it turned out to be so much more. I say the following not to scare anyone, only to state a fact; I do not remember being that sick for that long in my adult life. This virus is nothing to take lightly. However, there were some good things to come out of having this virus. I learned to appreciate so many small things that I was taking for granted.

I learned to appreciate the smell and taste of food. I found out that I had lost my taste and smell about two days into the virus when I bit into a turkey sandwich. For those who know me, sandwiches and burgers are my favorite, well really anything that you can put between two pieces of bread. However, when you don't have your taste and the only thing that you can relate to food is the texture, then and only then do you realize how disgusting a turkey sandwich can truly be. The loss of my taste made me realize that I had taken it for granted all my life. And then I wondered if I was taking the sweetness of God's Word for granted. The Psalmist wrote "How sweet are Your words to my taste, Sweeter than honey to my mouth! Psalm 119:103. Oh how I never want to take it for granted ever again!

This virus also taught me to appreciate my brethren even more than I already had. So many of you brought us food (which I'm sure was delicious although I couldn't taste it), called, sent cards, and more importantly prayed for us. We often call the people we go to church with our family and how appropriate that is, because we are just that; a FAMILY. You made us feel (and always have) like we belong here at Shiloh, and not as just a hired hand. You fulfilled the Law of Christ. Paul penned "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ," Galatians 6:2. I appreciate you and thank you so much for loving us the way that you do.

Finally this virus taught me to appreciate my family more than I did. For twelve days I was unable to spend time with family. I had to quarantine in the living room and although Stephanie was sick with the virus also, we both were too tired and irritable to be around one another. The words that Paul wrote in Ephesians chapters five and six take on a deeper meaning with me today.

I'm embarrassed that it took a virus to show me how much I need to appreciate, but prayerfully I won't take these things for granted again!

A Minute with Mac

What a great week we have had. The virus continues to affect so many in our area and some within our congregation. Reach out to those who are still recovering and see if there is anything that you can do for them. Many are too weak to cook supper and could use a hot meal dropped off on their porch. Continue to do look after those in need, that is one of the many things that makes Shiloh so great! We are blessed to have you here today and are looking forward to worshipping God with you this morning!

We have another compassion card that was turned in this past week. This will be the 1st sending. Please send cards of encouragement to the following:

Jerry Dison
509 Haygood Circle
Killen, AL 35645

His wife was a member here at Shiloh and he is a friend of Pam DesRuisseaux.

We also want to do a 2nd sending of cards of encouragement to the following:

Reed LaFan
5778 County Road 94
Florence, AL 35634

Jerry Coker
2060 County Road 38
Florence, AL 35634

Thank you for your cooperation in sending these cards. I understand that COVID has really messed this work up, however, I believe that in the long run this will work. After this virus passes these folks may very well show up to services one day, so keep on keeping on, Shiloh; and thank you so much for doing what you are doing!
