A Minute
with Mac

Every fat boy's favorite week has arrived! It's Thanksgiving week! It is a week to really fill your belly full with wonderful food and deserts. Yes, my diet and everyone else's diet are our the window this week. I can't wait to fill my belly with good ole turkey and ham and dressing. Just writing this is making my mouth water. Of course, I am also grateful that I am able to be here today to allow my spiritual side to feast on God! I am so excited that you made the choice to be here today. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning we will take a break from our yearly theme and simply focus on the idea of Thanksgiving. No not the meal or the national holiday, but the idea of what "I am thankful" for each and everyday.

This afternoon we will continue in our look at the book of John. Tonight we will look at John chapter 10 and see that Jesus is "the Good Shepherd," and how Him being the Good Shepherd benefits our lives today! Remember our service begins today at 1:00 and there will no 5:00 p.m. service

Wednesday evening will be our monthly singing night. If you would like to lead a song, we ask that you to wait until you are behind the podium to announce your song number and which verses you are going to lead, so that everyone, including the guys in the PowerPoint room can here you. Please pause before you begin your song and allow ample time for your song to be loaded onto the PowerPoint. We will allow the young men to go first so that they may go to their classes.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
