Are You Starving?
Brad Tolbert

Are you starving? This is probably a funny question to ask, especially since we just celebrated Thanksgiving and most of us probably ate more than we needed to. For most of us the holiday season includes good food and more desserts than you can shake a stick at. I know I enjoy all the food and treats that we only seem to see at holidays or special occasions.

We are, however, living in a world of people who are starving and they do not even know it. Of course, there are people in this world who are going hungry, but I am not talking about physical hunger. Instead, I am talking about spiritual hunger. A hunger, to the point of starvation that can only be filled by God’s word and obeying His will.

Sadly, even as Christians, we can also be hungry. We may even be starving and not realize it. Doing God’s will by being obedient workers in the kingdom is one of the ways Jesus taught His disciples to be filled. Jesus sent His disciples to go buy food while He rested by a well near the city of Sychar. When the disciples returned with food, Jesus was busy teaching a Samaritan woman who came to draw water from the well. When the disciples offer Jesus food, instead of eating, Jesus makes it clear that the most important thing for Him is to complete the work God sent Him to do. “Meanwhile the disciples were urging Him, saying, “Rabbi, eat something.” But He said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.” So the disciples were saying to one another, “No one brought Him anything to eat, did he?” Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to accomplish His work” (John 4:31-34).

In order to be fulfilled spiritually, maturing and growing as a Christian should, we must work for the Lord. God has blessed us with talents to accomplish His work which also feeds us spiritually.

A Minute with Mac

This week there are more of us, not numerically but definitely circumference wise. It has not been a good week for those who are dieting. This week we all watched what we ate...go right into our mouths. But today, hopefully we came with the attitude to fill up on God's Word. When it comes to our spiritual side, everyday should be like a Thanksgiving meal as we indulge on God's Word. I am so excited that you made the choice to be here today. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning we will continue to ask questions that we all must ask ourselves daily. Today we will be looking at the book of Jonah and asking ourselves, "Which Jonah are you?" As we come to the close of our yearly theme, we want to make sure that we are better as we move "Into the Future."

This evening Jake will be bringing our lesson to us. It is always a pleasure to hear Jake impart to us a lesson from God's Word. We are so blessed to have Jake and Meredith here at Shiloh. Please make plans to come back this evening and support him tonight!

Wednesday evening, Lord willing, we will be looking at the Intertestamental Period. We will be looking at the conditions that the world was in during the 400 years of silence in between the Old and New Testament. There is a lot that went on that put the world in that perfect place for the Christ to be sent!

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
