Watching Them Drown

Troy Albers

It was shocking, to say the least. In July, 2017, James Dunn, a disabled man, drowned in a Florida retention pond. There is a disturbing video to prove it. Standing on the shore was a group of five teens – ages 14-19 – watching James Dunn drown.

Instead of going into the water to save him, they took their phones out and started shooting video as he flailed in the water and pleaded three times for help.

To make matters worse, the teens can be heard in a video they posted on YouTube actually taunting James in his final moments.

To make matters even worse, none of the boys were charged with any crime. There is no law in Florida that requires anyone to provide emergency service to anyone whose life is in peril (New York Post, June 23, 2018). Let’s hope that this was a very isolated case of severely calloused people.

Christians need to realize that there are spiritually perishing people all around us all of the time. Those of us in Christ also need to understand that we have a responsibility to do whatever we can to make sure the perishing might be saved.

It’s imperative that Christians take the following actions toward saving the spiritually dying:

See the lost as being in the throes of spiritual death. Romans 6:23 should serve as a reminder that sinners will die without Christ.

See the need to reach out to them in an effort to save them. Christians have been charged with going into the world and teaching the lost how to be saved (Mark 16:15-16; Romans 10:14).

Move the lost out of harm’s way. The Bible strongly teaches believers to “rescue the weak and needy,” and those who are “being taken away to death” (Psalm 82:4; Proverbs 24:11).

For the Christian, standing on the shore and doing nothing to save the spiritually dying should be shocking to say the least.

“Notes in the Key of A”

Good Morning and Welcome!
Thank you for being here with us this morning!

We have a lot in the community who are dealing with this virus, whether they actually have it or are having to quarantine because they were in close contact with someone who has it. Please remember to pray for them everyday!

We continue to publish weekly content.
Be sure you are checking it out!

Thank you for working! Thank you for loving!
Thank you for growing!

Encourage someone this week!

I love you,
Wes

Mailbox Update:

Due to the safety of our members and our attempt to decrease the spread of COVID, no one will have access to the use of our member mailboxes this holiday season. There is a list of members on the table beside the bulletins in the entrance way for those who would like to mail cards. If you need an address that is not in your directory, please feel free to call the office between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 p.m. on Tuesday or Thursday mornings and Donna will try to help you locate the address. Lord willing, this will only be temporary as we pray that the world can get a handle on this horrible virus. Thank you for your cooperation!

Sunday Night Service:

Don't forget to join us tonight as we restart our weekly Sunday evening worship service, live streaming on Facebook and YouTube every Sunday at 5:00 p.m. This will not be an in-person service. We pray that this will help each one of us get back into the habit of Sunday evening worship!

A Minute with Mac

Turkey Day is over. I hope you all had a great Thanksgiving holiday and are recovering from all the wonderful food that was cooked last week. Now it is time for the Christmas lights to go up. I hope we all continue to realize that our Christian lights must be up and burning all year long for the lost to see. I am grateful for you and your willingness to be here this morning. If you are visiting, we are happy you are here and we pray that you feel welcomed. Please don't hesitate to ask any questions if there should be any that arise.

This morning, Wes will be bringing our sermon to us. Wes will be picking back up on our FOCUS 2020 theme as he looks at another church in Asia. Today he will be speaking to us about the church at Philadelphia. As always we look forward to hearing Wes preach from God's Holy Word.

This evening we will restart our Sunday evening Worship service at 5:00 p.m. It will be a little different than we are accustomed to as it will not be an in person service, however, it will be live streamed on our Facebook page and our YouTube channel. Remember you can always go to our website (www.shilohchurchofchrist.net) and hit the YouTube link and it will take you directly to our page.

Lord willing, we will see you back here at the building on Wednesday night at 6:30 as we will have an in person Bible Study. We have classes for all ages and encourage those who attend to wear a mask if possible, especially when in a close setting such as the class room. In the auditorium class we will continue to look at the book of Job.

Remember, Shiloh, to do the things that make us great this week. Check on those who are sick, both physically and spiritually. Shine your light and pray for our Eldership and the brotherhood worldwide. Also remember to pray for the opportunity to share the Gospel with someone this week!
