Can a person be “kicked out” of the Church?

Mckinley Pate

The church does not “kick” anyone out of the church as some exclaim. The church does however practice discipline just as parents do. When our children do something wrong we, as parents, don’t pat them on the back and say “way to go.” Rather we, out of sincere love for them, show them that they were in the wrong and try to have them correct that wrong behavior. In the church the same happens to God’s children. When God’s children commit public sin or bring reproach upon the church, our goal as Christians should always be to have that individual or individuals correct that sin. John stated “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9.

But how does discipline take place? If someone sins we have to follow the guidelines that Jesus set forth in Matthew 18. “Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'BY THE MOUTH OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES EVERY WORD MAY BE ESTABLISHED.' And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a heathen and a tax collector.,” Matthew 18:15-17. Our goal is to have that brother or sister correct his/her mistake and once again be a faithful follower of God. Unfortunately sometimes the one who sins will let pride stand in his/her way and he/she will not repent of his/her wrong doing. When that is the case, we as Christians, must stick to what the Bible tells us to do. “But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the tradition which he received from us.,” 2 Thessalonians 3:6. “Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.,” Titus 3:10-11. We do not do this out of hate but rather out of love, hoping and praying that he/she will repent. “And if anyone does not obey our word in this epistle, note that person and do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.,” 2 Thessalonians 3:14-15. When a congregation has to withdraw fellowship from a brother or sister in Christ, it is a very hard thing. However, sometimes this must be done in hopes of saving the souls of not only those walking disorderly but also the souls of the church. Let us remember that everything that we do in life, not only in the church, must be done out of love and not out of spite. Let us continue to pray for those whom we have had to withdraw fellowship from, but also remember that until he/she repents we cannot have fellowship with that person/persons.

“Notes in the Key of A”

Good Morning! Welcome to Shiloh!
We are so glad that you have joined us for worship this morning. If you are visiting with us please stick around and let us get to know you.

As the cooler temps begin to join us (and they are welcomed with open arms from me) our calendar is heating up! We have several things going on and several things to take note of. Please be on the lookout for announcements in the PowerPoint slides. Also, if you do not receive our monthly news email, I would love to add you to the list. Even if you don't have a teenager and you just want to keep up with SYG events you can be added to the email list.

We are going bowling tonight so bring money for food and for the alley.

Great things are happening! Continue to come to worship and be sure to invite someone to come with you!

Have a great week for God!

I love you,
Wes

A Minute with Mac

What a wonderful week we had this past week. Several of our number supported the homecoming at Stutt Road this past Sunday. From what I was told, all were fed with a healthy helping of spiritual food. If you are visiting with us today and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh. There are a lot of great things happening here at Shiloh.

We are blessed to have Wes speaking to us this morning and again tonight. Wes will continue our theme for the month of "the have's and the have nots," as he speaks on the subject "you have a present." We are so blessed to have Wes working with us here at Shiloh. He is great with all of members and visitors and is one of the greatest encouragers I know. Please let him know how happy you are that he is a part of our family here at Shiloh.

Remember that we have began the Wednesday morning Bible Class at 10:00 a.m. each Wednesday. Also directly after the Wednesday morning bible study, Wes and I go to Curtis' restaurant and we host our CHAT session each week. There is no set study, we are just there to talk, fellowship, and answer any biblical question that you may have. Of course, we're also there to enjoy some good food. Please consider coming and joining us at Curtis' when you can.

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page as we try to post something everyday to help you in your Christian walk. Also if you are not part of the private Shiloh COC group on Facebook, please join as we will try to give a weekly video update every Thursday about activities for the upcoming weekend. Also don't forget to check our website each week as we post the bulletin and the sermon outlines each Thursday. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
