“Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.”
Matthew 10:16

Simply Read Barry Haynes

Have you not read?

This phrase is used several times by Jesus when someone was asking him a doctrinal question (Matthew 12:3, 19:4, 21:16, 21:42, Mark 12:26). Many times these questions were asked as traps to try to force him into offending a particular audience or to make him look bad.

Yet Jesus answered this tough question with this simple thought: “Have You Not Read?” In doing so, he makes the answer not his alone. He places the burden of answering on another authority. It is not because Jesus doesn’t have the authority to answer, but by doing so he shows that the question isn’t a matter of coming up with your own personal take but seeing the direction God has placed in his word.

Maybe we should do the same. People often times will question our beliefs and practices. They may do so out of genuine curiosity but also may be doing so to pick an argument. Either way, the best answer is often to turn them to the scriptures for the answer. If the Bible says it and we don’t like the answer the argument isn’t with us, it is with God. And it’s hard to argue against God and be right.

Of course, to be able to do that we will have read it ourselves. Bible study is not just about answering our questions, but being “ready to make a defense” of our faith.

We must ask ourselves the same question, “Have you not read?”

The Shiloh
Scoop

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge and wisdom. These are exhortations from Proverbs. In addition to that, he who loves instructions loves knowledge (Prov. 12:1). What this translates to is this: he who loves the Lord will take time to know the Lord, learn from His will and apply His teachings to life. Thus, those who don't do this, contrary to the frequent sentiment expressed by them, they do not love the Lord. How does one love what he does not know? As true as this is, notice what the Lord said about those who refuse His instructions, "But he who hates correction is stupid" (NKJV)
