When did the church of Christ begin

Mckinley Pate

Recently I listened to a sermon which was preached by Buddy Bell at the Landmark church in Montgomery Alabama. In this sermon, Mr. Bell attempted to justify the use of instrumental music in worship, by saying that it is a “preference” and not a “salvation” issue. Of course, I completely 100% DISAGREE with Mr. Bell on this topic. However, in his opening statement, I began to understand how he came to his decision. Mr. Bell stated in his opening statement that the church of Christ began sometime in the late 1800s to early 1900s during the “restoration movement.”

Although I applaud those great pioneers of old; including Alexander Campbell, Barton W. Stone and others; the church of Christ did not begin with the “Restoration Movement.” It began on the day of Pentecost—A.D. 33. Jesus stated “And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven,” Matthew 16:18-19. When did this occur, when did He build the church that belongs to Him—the Church of Christ. According to the second chapter of Acts, the Church of Christ began on the Day of Pentecost, a day that was 50 days after the Passover in which Jesus was killed. Of course the Passover took place on a Saturday each year and according to Leviticus chapter 23 Pentecost was seven Sabbaths and a day following the Passover. This put the Pentecost on Sunday in which Peter having the keys to the Kingdom, opened the door that day in A.D. 33. It is the Church that only the Lord adds to, not man by a vote (Acts 2:47). It is the Church that bears His name, not some man’s name or thought. It is the Church that He bled, died for and purchased with His own blood (Acts 20:28) and not some building and idea which was purchased and come up with by some mortal man. To know more about the Lord’s Church all one has to do is read the book of Acts. Paul even referred to the Church in the book of Romans which was written around A.D. 57, when he wrote “The churches of Christ salute you.” Romans 16:16.

Although I appreciate the work of those pioneers some 150 years ago, I do not belong to “their church.” If I do, then I’m in the wrong church. I belong to the Church that Christ built 2000 years earlier.!

Good Morning! Welcome to Shiloh!
 We are so glad that you have joined us for worship this morning. If you are visiting with us please stick around and let us get to know you.

I enjoyed watching several of our Young Men conduct our worship service on Sunday night. I know you did too! This is a great work and we are so proud of the ones who were able to participate. If you didn't have the opportunity to participate this time, we look forward to having you on the next 5th Sunday.

Please be looking at the announcements slides in the coming weeks. They are stacked with information about upcoming events!

Great things are happening! Continue to come to worship and be sure to invite someone to come with you!

Have a great week for God!

I love you,
Wes

A Minute with Mac

What a wonderful week we had this past week. We continue to have good attendance and we give all the glory to God. I'm so glad that you are apart of the Shiloh family. As always if you are visiting with us and are looking for a church home, we would love for you to consider Shiloh.

I want to begin by saying how much I enjoyed the afternoon service this past Sunday. We had 12 young men who did a wonderful job in leading us in the afternoon service. Please make sure to continue to encourage our youth every time you see them. Our young people have a lot to deal with each and every day, and a small word of encouragement from you will go such a long way and mean a lot to them.

Today we will begin our October theme of "the have's and the have not's." Today we will be looking at our past and be discussing the topic "don't let your past defeat you." All of us have a past, many of us have past we are not proud of. Because of our past, it becomes difficult to forgive ourselves of the things that we have done. Today we will examine the past that are riddled with sin and see how only in Christ can we be reconciled to God. We will notice that when God forgives, He forgets and we should do our best to do the same.

Keep on keeping on and please invite all you know. Be sure to check out the church's Facebook page as we try to post something everyday to help you in your Christian walk. Also if you are not part of the private Shiloh COC group on Facebook, please join as we will try to give a weekly video update every Thursday about activities for the upcoming weekend. Also don't forget to check our website each week as we post the bulletin and the sermon outlines each Thursday. Remember, Welcome to Shiloh—Welcome Home!
