JESUS THE ROCK

Psalm 18:2

Rock. Fortress. Deliverer. Refuge. Tower. Salvation.

In a single sentence, the Psalmist presents a word picture of God that repeatedly paints Him in the strongest earthly terms.

God is the place to run when the enemy attacks.

He is our rock — the foundation of our world. Unflinching. Unchanging.

He delivers us from danger. He provides a safe place that is fortified against enemy attacks. In Him, we find safety, respite, rest, and salvation.

We live in a world that is constantly changing, but we worship a God who never changes.

That means we can be comforted in the knowledge that Jesus is the rock that cannot be moved: “I am the Lord, I do not change” (Malachi 3:6 NKJV).

When you face tough times, difficult situations, unfair treatment, or broken relationships, remember that some things never change — things like the love you feel in your heart and God’s love for you.

So do not worry about life’s inevitable challenges. Instead, focus your energies on Jesus. He is unchanging in the midst of change. He is Jesus Christ — the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8).
