A Time to Remember
Mckinley Pate

Yesterday was the twentieth anniversary of September 11th 2001. For those of us who were old enough to remember that fateful day, it was a day that forever changed our lives. Many of us remember exactly where we were when the first and second planes hit the World Trade Center Towers. We remember the feeling of helplessness, shock, and horror as we watched people willfully leaping to their death due to the intense heat and fire that was all around them. I imagine all of us who remember that day, could recall every event of that day like it was yesterday. We can recall every emotion of that day just like it was happening all over again at this very moment. It was a day that we will never forget!

Let us now think back to a day that none of us experienced in person. A day that was much more important than the day that we just discussed. A day that changed the world! But sadly it is a day that most try to act like that never happened. The day is when the man named Jesus was crucified. That day that He took on our sins so that we could be reconciled (made friendly again) to God. “For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: "WHO COMMITTED NO SIN, NOR WAS DECEIT FOUND IN HIS MOUTH"; who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously; who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—by whose stripes you were healed,” 1 Peter 1:21-24. It is a day that we are commanded by God through the Holy Spirit to remember each and every Sunday according to Acts 20:6-7. “For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me." In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." 1 Corinthians 11:23-25. Let us never forget that DAY!

A Minute with Mac

It has been another up and down week. We have a number of our members who are hurting over the death of loved ones. We truly want to continue remember these families in our daily prayer. We also have had a number of responses over the past week and a half and one new brother in Christ. Although we are surrounded by the bad things in life, we are also surrounded by the great things in Christ. If you are visiting with us, please know that you are our honored guest and please stick around for a few minutes after services so that we can get to know you better. If you have any questions about what is done or said in our worship service, please don't hesitate to ask.

This morning we will continue to look at our yearly theme "Into the Future." As we have been on this journey to see how we as Christians can improve and move forward in the future, we will continue to look at the different aspects of the Fruit of the Spirit. This week will look at the next aspect mentioned by Paul in Galatians 5:22-23 which is the aspect of "Gentleness." We will try to define gentleness, look at the decline in gentleness, and then look at how we need a disposition of gentleness. I pray that it will be uplifting and thought provoking to us all!

This evening we will continue looking at the book of John as we begin looking at chapter 6. Tonight we will look at the only miracle of Jesus that is mentioned within all four Gospel accounts, the feeding of the five thousand. The title of the lesson is "Filling up on Jesus."

Wednesday evening we will continuing our overview of the Old Testament. Lord willing we will be looking at period number 9, the divided kingdom.

It is going to be a great day! And I am so glad that we get to worship our God—together!
