The 1000 year reign of Christ Part 3

Mckinley Pate

Now let’s take this one step further. We know that no where in scripture does it say that Christ will even step foot on Earth, but rather we will meet Him in the air when He returns according to scripture. But there is another reason why Christ will not come back to Earth and establish an earthly kingdom like the Premillennialist state. It is simply that the Kingdom that Christ established is a spiritual one and not a physical one. If Christ wanted to establish a physical Kingdom He would have done just that as He had two separate occasions to do just that. In Matthew 4:8-9 Satan offered to give all the Kingdoms to Christ “Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me." And a second time recorded in the book of John Jesus had the chance to establish an earthly Kingdom, but He didn't.

“Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone,” John 6:15. However, according to Jesus Himself, His Kingdom was going to be spiritual and not physical. “Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation; nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!' For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you," Luke 17:20-21

Remember Premillennialist state that the reason we have the Church is because God didn’t see the Jews rejecting Jesus and therefore Jesus was not able to set up His earthly Kingdom and so the Church is just a temporary replacement until Christ returns to set up His kingdom and reign 1000 years. The Greek term for that thinking is “Hogwash.” We know that the Church was always the plan of God. It is because of the Church that the angelic beings finally understand God’s purpose and plan. “to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord,” Ephesians 3:10-11. Lord willing, next week will finish up by looking at the final reason, according to the Bible, that Christ will not reign over an earthly kingdom!

A Minute with Mac

The folks on the television keep saying that we are going to get some cooler weather soon, but it seems like everyday they back up the days when it will happen. But we must remember that God gives all that we need, not all that we want. And we have this wonderful building to assemble in and I am so glad to be able to worship our God with you this morning.

This morning, we will continue looking at our yearly theme of God's vision for the church. Today we will be discussing individual growth and submission as we look at the infamous 23rd Psalm. I hope this sermon will shed a new light on what David was writing about.

Due to not having in-person Bible Classes, at 6 p.m. there will be a pre-recorded bible class uploaded to our Facebook page. We will be looking at Psalm chapter 18. Also be on the look out for Wes' weekly teen bible study, K-5 bible study and the Cradle Roll bible study; all which can be found on our Facebook page and YouTube channel. You can also go to our website and click the YouTube link to view all of these classes as well.

Our Wednesday night Bible Study will take place this coming Wednesday as a live stream event only. We will begin at 6:30 p.m. and Wes and I will be taking your questions for our question and answer Bible Study live via the internet. If you have a question that you would like us to discuss, please send it to me or Wes via text message or phone call. Please tune in to our Facebook page, our YouTube channel or our Website to watch live.

Please continue to pray for one another and check on one another. Pray for our country as we are facing a time of disarray. Continue to pray for our Eldership as they shepherd us through this difficult time! Love you all and stay safe!
