The 1000 Year Reign of Christ—Part 4 Mckinley Pate

We have already looked at plenty of scriptures that would destroy the Premillennialist idea of the 1000 year reign of Christ. However, as I often do, I don't want to leave any room for doubt. And obviously God didn't either, because there is another reason why Christ will not return to earth upon His second coming to set up an earthly kingdom and rule on earth for a 1000 years. Let's check it out.

In Jeremiah 22, God begins to denounce a king from the Southern Kingdom of Judah by the name of Jeconiah (or Coniah as used in the these passages). "As I live," says the LORD, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on My right hand, yet I would pluck you off; (28-30) "Is this man Coniah a despised, broken idol—A vessel in which is no pleasure? Why are they cast out, he and his descendants, And cast into a land which they do not know? O earth, earth, earth, Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the LORD: 'Write this man down as childless, A man who shall not prosper in his days; For none of his descendants shall prosper, Sitting on the throne of David, And ruling anymore in Judah.'" Jeremiah 22:24, 28-30. What God is saying here is that no one in the seed line of Jeconiah would ever rule again on earth, ever! So what does that have to do with Christ. Let's keep digging.

"The sons of Josiah were Johanan the firstborn, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, and the fourth Shallum. The sons of Jehoiakim were Jeconiah his son and Zedekiah his son. And the sons of Jeconiah were Assir, Shealtiel his son," 2 Chronicles 3:15-17. Here the descendants and predecessors of Jeconiah are listed. Now we are going to fast forward to the lineage of Christ in Matthew, however, we must remember that the Jews did not call their grandchildren grand, they were just known as sons. Therefore, if you were Jewish your children's children would be called your sons or daughters, not your grandsons or granddaughters. Confusing? I know!

"Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers about the time they were carried away to Babylon," Matthew 1:11. Here Matthew is giving the lineage of Jesus and who is in His lineage, none other than Jeconiah who God stated that none of his descendants would be sitting on David's throne here on earth. However we know that Christ is on David's Throne today and that throne is not a physical one, but a spiritual one.

A Minute with Mac

We missed out on most of the rain from the tropical storm that came through the lower half of the state this week. But I'm glad that we are not missing out on worshipping our Creator this morning and I'm so grateful to have you worshipping with us here at Shiloh this morning.

This morning, we will continue looking at our yearly theme of God's vision for the church. Today we will be discussing how we can continue to grow individually through love. We will be looking at the great chapter of love in 1 Corinthians 13.

Due to not having in-person Bible Classes, at 6 p.m. there will be a pre-recorded bible class uploaded to our Facebook page. We will be finishing up Psalm chapter 18. Also be on the look out for Wes' weekly teen bible study, K-5 bible study and the Cradle Roll bible study; all which can be found on our Facebook page and YouTube channel. You can also go to our website and click the YouTube link to view all of these classes as well.

Our Wednesday night Bible Study will take place this coming Wednesday as a live stream event only. We will begin at 6:30 p.m. and Wes and I will be taking your questions for our question and answer Bible Study live via the internet. If you have a question that you would like us to discuss, please send it to me or Wes via text message or phone call. Please tune in to our Facebook page, our YouTube channel or our Website to watch live. However, we will return to in person Bible Classes on Wednesday nights beginning October 7th. College age and up will all be in the auditorium.

Please continue to pray for one another and check on one another. Pray for our country as we are facing a time of disarray. Continue to pray for our Eldership as they shepherd us through this difficult time! Love you all and stay safe!
